Professional Excellence
in Building Awards

2019 NATIONAL SPONSORSHIP PACKAGES

The AIB Professional Excellence Awards are unique as they are the only Australian awards that recognise the contribution of an individual building professional's excellence in the building and construction process, as opposed to the project and structures.

A number of unique sponsorship opportunities are available for the 2019 AIB National Awards that are ideal for stakeholders in the building and construction industry seeking to demonstrate their commitment to the profession and to reinforce brand recognition amongst building professionals.

2019 AIB National Professional Excellence in Building Awards

AIB Award Nomination Process

Submissions are received in March and are assessed at State or Territory Chapter level using nationally consistent criteria.

Individuals are eligible to receive two types of awards:

- High Commendation;
- Professional Excellence Award.

Recipients of Professional Excellence Awards at a State or Territory Chapter level are automatically nominated for the National Awards.

Where the judges believe a building professional has demonstrated an exceptional level of expertise and professionalism, they are recognised as the AIB National Building Professional of the Year.

About the Australian Institute of Building

The Australian Institute of Building (AIB) is the professional body for builders.

Founded in 1951, AIB's purpose is to promote higher education in building industry and does so by accrediting all the mainstream construction management degrees in Australia. It is the only Australian-based professional institute for building professionals.

A key role of the AIB is to assist building professionals understand changes to the commercial, technical and regulatory environment. This is accomplished via an extensive range of continuing professional development events and through the Construct quarterly magazine.

The AIB works with leading Universities and other training providers to ensure that managers within the building and construction industry have access to quality training and higher education.
